Other Business Activities

Please enter any and all applicable other business activities with an overview of each activity. If the supervised person receives commissions, bonuses or other compensation based on the sale of insurance, securities or other investment products, including as a broker-dealer or registered representative, and including distribution or service (“trail”) fees from the sale of mutual funds, disclose this fact. If this compensation is not cash, explain what type of compensation the supervised person receives. Explain that this practice gives the supervised person an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on the client’s needs.

Patrick R. Kelly Jr. is engaged in Outside Business Activity and this information has been disclosed on his U-4. He receives commissions for the sale of life insurance products. Patrick also works on a software company that he does not receive compensation from at this time, but he does have ownership in the software company.

Additional Compensation

Patrick R. Kelly Jr. does not receive additional compensation outside of [his / her] Registered Investment Advisory compensation.

Supervision

The Registrant provides investment advisory and supervisory services in accordance with the Registrant’s policies and procedures manual. The primary purpose of the Registrant’s Rule 206(4)-7 policies and procedures is to comply with the requirements of Section 203(e)(6) of the Investment Advisor’s Act (“Act”). The Registrant’s Chief Compliance Officer, Tim Lyle, is primarily responsible for the implementation of the Registrant’s policies and procedures and overseeing the activities of the Registrant’s supervised persons. Should an employee or investment adviser representative of the Registrant have any questions regarding the applicability/relevance of the Act, the Rules thereunder, any section thereof, or any section of the policies and procedures, he/she should address those questions with the Chief Compliance Officer. Should a client have any questions regarding the Registrant's supervision or compliance practices, please contact Mr. Lyle at (941) 441-2952.
